Recently we received a notification from one of the other Nationwide Credit Reporting Agencies, concerning information contained in their report that you identified as fraudulent. As a courtesy to you, TransUnion also reinvestigated the information.

Our investigation of the dispute submitted is now complete. The results are listed below and a revised copy of your credit report is enclosed.

If our investigation has not resolved your dispute, you may add a 100-word statement to your report. If you provide a consumer statement that contains medical information related to service providers or medical procedures, then you expressly consent to TransUnion including this information in every credit report we issue about you.

If there has been a change to your credit history resulting from our investigation, or if you add a consumer statement, you may request that TransUnion send an updated report to those who received your report within the last two years for employment purposes, or within the last one year for any other purpose.

If interested, you may also request a description of how the investigation was conducted along with the name, address and telephone number of anyone we contacted for information.
